

HEALTHCARE RECRUITING

In whatever part of the healthcare industry you find yourself, you are dealing with a lot of challenges—finding the right research partner shouldn't be one of them. Recruiting is where L&E shines, and healthcare recruiting is one of our specialties.

DEDICATED HEALTHCARE RESEARCH TEAM

Whether you're conducting regional studies or complex multi-market studies, L&E's dedicated and experienced Healthcare Research Team is here to support you. L&E provides you with both healthcare professional and patient population recruiting services for studies that can be conducted virtually, via telephone or web interviews, or in-person at one of our research facilities.
